

Community Giving

Melchert Hubert Sjodin believes that we should re-invest in the communities where we do business. The attorneys at MHS believe in giving back to communities as part of a personal and professional code. We've seen the results in our lives and our firm over several generations. Charitable giving is one of our major commitments, not only with money, but with our contributions of time, energy and knowledge to local organizations.

Areas we are primarily interested in contributing to in the Waconia area are:

- Community and civic organizations
- Children and youth programs (including but not limited to: mentoring programs; after-school programs; community library programs; youth sports teams; scholarship programs)
- People in crisis (including but not limited to: local food banks; homeless shelters;
- Promoting arts, culture and other “enriching” institutions that contribute to a community’s quality of life (including but not limited to: history museums; religious and spiritual organizations; performing arts groups)
- Health promotion

Exclusions

- Individuals
- Support for political organizations
- Candidates for political office
- Loans of any type
